Welcome to EFMC 2009

On behalf of EuroFM and IFMA we feel very honoured to be part of EFMC 2009. Once again, IFMA and EuroFM will jointly present EFMC – the most well-known conference in Europe on facility management. "One world, different problems – joint efforts, sustainable solutions!" is the theme of this year's event.

EFMC will host two symposia: one for business and practice, and another for research and study; thus bridging two disciplines with respect to one globe with shared challenges. The conference will be supported by more than 33 national facility management associations, in particular FMN and IFMA-Holland, and more than 41 research and educational organizations – including highly recognised institutions such as the Center for People and Buildings, LOOFD – Dutch Association of Facility Management Education, TU Delft and the Wageningen University.

As in past years, the event will bring people of diverse individual and cultural backgrounds together from many European countries and abroad. Despite different worldviews and national cultures, we are all challenged by similar issues – whether it be demographic changes or energy consumption. EFMC organizers are committed to support the development of facility management knowledge and practice in light of these issues.

Attendees are invited to participate in events such as the Student Poster Gallery Contest, the European FM Awards and the Exhibition, each recognizing outstanding achievements in facility management.

For those who wish to expand their professional contacts, EFMC also offers a platform for networking with delegates and speakers, as well as students, educators, professors and researchers in the field. Join us as we recognize and share global best practices in facility management.

We invite you to Amsterdam and would be delighted to welcome you.

Albert MM Pilger
Chairman, EuroFM

Session A

(Re-)Defining Core Business of FM; FM: Adding Value to Core Business

Chair: Representative From BIFM

11.00 – 11.30

Digital work streams and digital quality management

- When housing costs are offered as a price per unit (mainly square meter), the business lines of a company start to manage on volume
- Though standardization and automating the workflows, the role of the FM organization as an intermediate between clients and contractors can be performed efficiently
- Standardization and automation of quality management lead to a higher price/quality ratio

Marc van der Lee, Manager, Business Support Within Real Estate Services and Jeroen Freijser, Facility Management Organisation, KPN, The Netherlands

11.30 – 12.00

Evidence-based Facility Management

- What do businesses want to know and need to know?
 - Significant existing bodies of FM research
 - Knowledge gaps and how to fill them
- Prof. Alexi Marmot, Professor of Facility and Environment Management, Bartlett School of Graduate Studies, University College London, U.K.

12.00 – 12.30

The Circle of Five®

A magic recipe for optimizing and benchmarking location potency

- Integral approach to healthy location development issues
 - Experience-based model combining public and commercial disciplines
 - Close look at underestimated ingredients to benchmark potency locations
- Rinus Vader, Executive Director, Business Development, NPC Headquarters, The Netherlands

12.30 – 12.45

Q & A

12.45 – 14.15

Lunch Break / Exhibition

Session B

Business Processes and Technology Trends

Chair: Representative From GEFMA

11.00 – 11.30

ISO 9001 and ISO 14001 in Facility Management: More Procedures Mean More Quality?

- How to optimize procedures, reduce paper consumption and relate data
 - Implement necessary procedures for employees and providers without affecting their productivity
 - Online evaluation of KPIs of quality and environmental protection
- Pedro Garcia, Corporate & Facility Manager, Neinver, Spain

11.30 – 12.00

Service Experience Level Agreements: The Key to Client Satisfaction is to Manage Expectations

- Service Experience Level Agreements (SELAS) - a new concept that allows a company to attune its service concept to the core values of the company
 - The practical value of SELAS will be demonstrated using a case study on Livio, a service provider
 - See how the core values of Livio can be translated into services, fulfilling the expectations of management, staff and clients
- Petra Hillenius, Lecturer, Saxion University and P.G.M. Scholten, Manager Facilities, Livio, The Netherlands

12.00 – 12.30

Facility Performance Monitoring – An Integrated Solution for Being “In Control”

- More and more companies are outsourcing most of their facility services; but they rarely determine the way of monitoring the contracted performance beforehand. This causes many problems because the demand organization and the supplier will have different perceptions of how and what will be audited and which will be the performance indicators
 - The performance monitoring method and the KPIs must be part of the service contract. The demand organization must have a clear vision on the required service level and client satisfaction before tendering
 - The process of determining and implementing the performance monitoring will be illustrated by means of a practical case
- Bernard Drion, Director, Hospitality Consultants, The Netherlands

An Enterprise Capital Asset Life Cycle Management Model

- Present an American approach to Capital Asset Life Cycle Management
- Introduce an integrated business model for comprehensive Life Cycle Asset Management
- Present quantitative benchmarks supporting key process areas in the models

Fritz Reuter, Senior Vice President, Facilities Development & Real Estate and Matthias Ebinger, Senior Manager, Enterprise PM Systems, New York Presbyterian Hospital, USA

14.45 – 15.15

Sustainability in a Bank Data Centre – Measures for Guaranteeing the High Availability

- Data centres are a task of high complexity for facility managers
- Intensive communication between IT and FM is necessary to understand the needs
- A green data centre requires a good facility manager

Eveline Balogh, Facility Manager, Österreichische Kontrollbank AG, Austria

Student Poster Gallery 2009

Have a look at the posters that FM bachelor's and master's students from all over Europe have produced to present their recent study/research findings!

The posters will be judged by an international jury consisting of Board members of IFMA, EuroFM and practitioners (Tuesday, 16 June 2009, 13.30 – 16.00).

The five best posters will be presented during the closing plenary session (Wednesday, 17 June 2009, 14.30 -15.00).

Your vote will appoint the winners. They will receive a free stay at IFMA's World Workplace 2009 Conference & Expo, October 2009 in Orlando USA.

Details: Hermans.R@nhtv.nl

Enjoy an excellent meal and the company of your colleagues, other conference delegates and speakers as you celebrate Europe's best researchers, students, service providers and FMs receive their prestigious European FM Awards 2009.

The first prestigious European FM Awards were held in Zurich in 2007, and we continued this recognition in 2008 in Manchester honoring best practice and excellence within the European facility management profession across practice, research and education arenas. The 2008 awards also highlighted the challenge for facility management professionals in light of the national, cultural, regulatory and language differences across the different European regions.

There are four award categories

1. Partners across borders
2. European FM of the Year
3. European FM Researcher of the Year
4. European FM student of the Year

If you are responsible for FM operations in continental Europe, or provide services across European national boundaries then go to www.eurofm.org to find out how to enter the European FM Awards for more information.

Closing date 27th February 2009

Entrants are asked to indicate their interest in entering an Award category by emailing eurofmawards@imlgroup.co.uk or visit www.pfmmagazine.co.uk where entry forms can be obtained.

EuroFM

european facility management network

EuroFM – European Facility Management Network

This is a network of more than 89 organisations based in more than 18 European countries, all focused on facility management. They represent professional (national) associations, education and research institutes and corporate organisations. EuroFM members are involved in an open exchange of information and experience through meetings, seminars and workshops, through collaboration in research projects and through the development of joint education programmes. EuroFM's mission is the advancement of knowledge in facility management in Europe and its application in practice, education and research.
